

get well soon kim

Please send your best wishes to Kim at this moment as she is very poorly,

She has not been well for some time now, but like all of us she tries so hard to stay well but sometimes we get beaten to the ground and I am afraid this is one of them times, she has got what it seems like blocked tubes in her ears and is having very bad pains from them she was on a course of antibiotic that has done her no good at all now she has been put on a stronger antibiotic starting tomorrow so with a bit of luck it may sort her out.

but if truth be told she has not been well for a long long time now with her stomach and bowel problems... and not forgetting her eyes so I hope with me you can send her get well thoughts and your love ...she is so desperate trying to be well for her children and grandchildren and great grandchildren for Christmas day...lots of love sent your way and hoping you are feeling better soon lots of love an xxx

Hi Kim, so sorry you are not well. It's bad enough dealing with the AA without all these other illnesses following on.

I will say a prayer for you. Doesn't do much for me but you never know!!

Get well soon.

Rita xx
