

New Front Page

Posted by Kim - 28 Jun 2005 20:45

Hello to everyone

Hoping to post a new Front page, much more interactive as of Wednesday.

DocSarah back online as well and keeping an eye on the Forum questions and hoping to be able to answer your questions! Give her time tho'. She is just like us - not so good times and worse times!

Anyone like to give the Doc a lift in spirits?

Kim

Hi Kim,

Yes I really like the new front page. Please tell the Doc how much of an impact she and all of you have had in a short period in my life. Thanks again.

Darla
