

ITCHES AND TWITCHES,
PAINS, PINS AND NEEDLES
RINGING IN THE EARS AND SPINNING:
A CATALOGUE OF NEUROLOGICAL SYMPTOMS

INTRODUCTION:

This article will attempt to cover some of the myriad of symptoms that patients with Arachnoiditis commonly experience.

As the title suggests, these can be varied and sometimes bizarre, and often remain unidentified.

When you've read this article, hopefully you'll have a much clearer idea of the reason behind those irritating and worrying symptoms.

Some of the symptoms can be easily treated, others less so, but understanding them should help to reduce the stress they cause.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

The information in this article is for general purposes only and is NOT a substitute for medical consultation. You should NEVER attempt to self-diagnose.

CONTENTS:

- Dizziness; balance problems
- Eye problems
- Itching
- Muscle twitching/cramps/jerks; Restless legs; Stiffness
- Neuralgia: nerve pains
- Neuropathy and compressive syndromes
- Pins and needles
- Ringing in the ears
- Sweating
- Walking
- Weakness
- Odd symptoms: foot drop; snoring